Commercial sour cream has a most delightful flavor and it gives a special gourmet touch to the dishes in which it is used. Many people add it to stews and casseroles — and it does wonders for gravies and cream soups.

Do try the tangy goodness of sour cream in one of these recipes next time you're looking for something different to tempt the family. Really good and very economical.

MEAT BALLS IN SOUR CREAM GRAVY

2 lb. ground chuck
1/2 tsp. salt
1/4 tsp. pepper
2 eggs, beaten
1 cup onion, chopped
16-18 ripe pitted olives
3 Tbsp. shortening
3 Tbsp. flour
1/2 cup water
2 cups sour cream
1 tsp. dill seed
1/4 tsp. salt

Combine meat seasonings, eggs and onion. Mix well. Shape meat balls around a ripe pitted olive. Brown meat balls in hot fat in a skillet set on automatic top burner at 300 deg. to 325 deg.

Remove meat balls from skillet and keep warm in low temperature gas oven set at 120 deg. Reserve 3 Tbsp. fat skillet, add flour and blend at 210 deg. on automatic top burner. Add water slowly and cook until thickened.

Lower temperature on automatic top burner to 200 deg. Add sour cream, dill seed and 1/4 tsp. salt. Lay meat balls in sauce.

Cover and cook 10 to 15 minutes at 200 deg. Serve with cooked broad noodles.

CREAMY MACARONI AND CHEESE

1/2 lb. macaroni
1/2 lb. sharp cheddar cheese, grated
salt and pepper
1 cup commercial sour cream

1 cup milk
Cook macaroni in salted water on automatic top burner set at 210 deg. until barely tender. Drain but do not rinse. Put a layer of macaroni in an oiled baking dish.

Add a layer of cheese, dot with sour cream, season as desired and pour on part of milk. Repeat until all ingredients are used, saving some of the cheese for the top.

Bake at 350 deg. for about 30 minutes, or until cheese is melted and hot.

ELEGANT BURGERS

1 1/2 lb. ground beef
1 1/2 tsp. salt
1/4 tsp. pepper
2 Tbsp. minced onion
1 1/2 cups soft bread crumbs
1/2 cup milk
1 cup sour cream
paprika

Add seasonings and onion to ground beef. Soak crumbs in milk till paste like, then add 1/2 cup sour cream and meat mixture. Mix lightly. Form 1" thick patties of meat mixture and broil about 12 minutes in your gas broiler.

Remember, as always, to place the top of the food about 3" from the tip of the flame and to CLOSE BROILER DOOR for smokeless, cool broiling. Turn only once.

Spoon remaining 1/2 cup sour cream on patties and return to broiler for 1 minute to heat the cream. Top with paprika. Serve.

CHOPS SUPERB

6 lean chops (lamb, pork or veal)
salt and pepper
2 large onions
1 cup sour cream
paprika

Roll chops in flour and season each with salt and pepper. Fit chops into an oiled baking dish. Cut onions into thick slices and put a slice on each chop. Top with sour cream and a sprinkling of paprika. Bake in gas oven set at 350 deg. for about one hour or until meat is tender.

"WITCHES SCARE ME!" Dorothy and the Tin Man confide in a scene from the July 26 and 27 production of "Wizard of Oz" in the Campus Theater. The Tin Man is played by Terry Klein, while Naomi Moore appears as Dorothy Gale. Jane Cobabe assumes the role of the Wicked Witch in the children's production.

Fun Is Promised at Casino Night

Fun! That's what is in store for everyone, according to Mrs. Charles Butterfield, general chairman, as plans are completed for Nativty Parish's "Casino Night," to be staged Saturday at the Nativty Annex, corner of Engracia and Arlington, from 8 p.m. to 1 a.m.

Acting as master of ceremonies, Jack Cassidy will introduce Mel Coates and his Musical Notes for everyone's dancing pleasure along with various entertainers, including "The Treble Makers," square dancers from the Torrance Twirlers and surprise acts from "talented" parishioners.

Ray Hart, Peter O'Brien and Mrs. Harley Berning have announced a large variety of games and many fabulous prizes will be enjoyed. A console color television, donated by McCormack's Mortuary, will be awarded to some lucky person at the end of the evening.

Final Concert Set In Vesper Series

Third in a series of three vesper concerts concerning J. S. Bach on death was presented at Resurrection Lutheran Church, 330 Palos Verdes Blvd., Redondo Beach at 4 p.m. Sunday.

The concert included the entire motet "Jesu, Meine Freude," a twenty-five minute work based on the well-known Lutheran Chorale "Jesus, Priceless Treasure."

The work was presented by the Concerto Chorale, made up of five solo voices: Eleanor Maes, soprano; Joy Barker, soprano; Ruth Baggett, alto; Richard Robinson, tenor; and Don Ogren, bass.

The Bach Choir of Resurrection Lutheran did support the solo voices in the Chorale settings and other portions.

Also performed were six of Bach's sacred songs, originally written for a collection of sacred arias published by Schemelli in his "Gesangebuch." The songs were sung by Lyle Heck and Miss Eleanor Maes as solos and duets.

In addition to accompanying vocal works on harpsichord, Malcolm Hamilton accompanied Art Lytle in Bach's sonata for flute and harpsichord.

The vesper concerts were under the musical direction of Lyle Heck, choirmaster of Resurrection Lutheran Church, and sponsored by the "Lutheran Friends of Music."

Temple Menorah Installs New Rabbi

Assuming duties as the new spiritual leader of Temple Menorah, Redondo Beach, is Rabbi Jerome A. Unger.

A native of New York City, Rabbi Unger officiated at his first service of the Temple on July 5, 1963. He will be officially installed in his new office this fall.

Rabbi Unger received his higher education at Chico State College, Chico, Calif.; the University of California, Berkeley, and the Hebrew University, Jerusalem, Israel. He received a Bachelor of Arts Degree in 1952; General Secondary Teacher's Credential in 1953; Master of Arts in Hebrew Letters in 1960 and Rabbinic Ordination in 1960 in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Rabbi Unger's first rabbinic assignment was for the World Union for Progressive Judaism as their first representative in Israel. He served in this capacity from June, 1960, to June, 1963. His task was to stimulate and guide the development of a liberal Jewish religious expression in the State of Israel in consonant with the needs of the modern Israeli.

In this capacity he guided the development of the "progressive" movement throughout Israel and served as the pioneer for reform congregations in Jerusalem, Kfar Shmaryahu - Herzliya and Upper Nazareth.

Rabbi Unger was the founding rabbi of both the Upper Nazareth congregation and the Kfar Shmaryahu-Herzliya congregation.

He conducted and participated in public discussions, debates, lectures and seminars as the spokesman for Reform Judaism in Israel. He also coordinated and participated in the writing and publishing of the first reform prayerbook printed in Hebrew and in the modern State of Israel.

His published articles have appeared in the Reconstructionist, Dec. 29, 1961, and his activities have been reported in the New York Times, Time Magazine and American Judaism.

Rabbi Unger has now returned to the United States after three years of outstanding service to serve the South Bay community, and the congregation of Temple Menorah.
